Questions to Ask Yourself Right Now!

- Would you prefer to have all of your money only in paper money, or would you prefer to link some of your money to real money, Gold Money, which has been money for over 5,000 years?
- Would you prefer to buy more in the future with the money you have now, or less in the future?
- Where would you be today, if you had regularly saved into Gold over the last 10 years (when it was US$300 to US400 per ounce back in 2003), up until now?
- Where would you like to be with your savings plan in 5 to 10 years time?
- If you had $1,500 now, and you put it in a safe for 10 years, would you put away cash (paper money) or real gold?
- Did you realize Gold is up +300% since 2003, even after its fall in 2012 and 2013, whereas your paper money is at least 20% down in spending power, since 2003.
- Do you really think Governments and Central Banks can now stop printing money? Will they really do the unpopular thing and reduce spending and tighten the money supply?
- Do you have control of your money, or do you have to call someone? With Karatbars you control your money!
- Are you currently paying yourself first by saving, before all your money slips through your fingers before the end of each month?
- Where else can you earn residual monthly income, just from helping people save their money on a regular basis?
- Where else can you earn money, save money and get a great financial education at the same time?
- Do you want to act now, or panic later like many people will?
- Many people wonder, "When is the best time to buy Gold"? The answer is: "The best time to do the right thing, is all the time"!

Some Great Quotes about Gold and Money:

"There is no subtler, no surer means of overturning the existing basis of society than to debauch the currency. The process engages all the hidden forces of economic law on the side of destruction. And does it in a manner which no one man in a million is able to diagnose",

- John Maynard Keynes, 1920

"In contrast to political money, gold is honest money that survived the ages and will live on long after the political fiats of today have gone the way of all paper. "The gold standard, in one form or another, will prevail long after the present rash of national fiats is forgotten or remembered only in currency ..."

- Charles De Gaulle

"Even during the period when Rome lost much of her ancient prestige, an Indian traveller observed that trade all over the world was operated with the aid of Roman gold coins which were accepted and admired everywhere."

- Paul Einzig

"For more than two thousand years gold's natural qualities made it man's universal medium of exchange. In contrast to political money, gold is honest money that survived the ages and will live on long after the political fiats of today have gone the way of all paper."

- Hans F. Sennholz

"Gold would have value if for no other reason than that it enables a citizen to fashion his financial escape from the state."

- William F. Rickenbacker

"All of the government's monetary, economic and political power, as well as its extensive propaganda machinery, will be enlisted in a constant battle to drive down the price of gold – but in the absence of any fundamental change in the nation's monetary, fiscal, and economic direction, simply regard any major retreat in the price of gold as an unexpected buying opportunity."

- Irwin A. Schiff

"Nothing beats a little cash in a bear market, of course, and the oldest form of cash is gold."

- James Grant

"The tongue hath no force when gold speaketh," - Guazzo

"You have to choose [as a voter] between trusting to the natural stability of gold and the natural stability and intelligence of the members of the government. And with due respect to these gentlemen, I advise you, as long as the capitalist system lasts, to vote for gold."

- George Bernard Shaw

"Man prates, but gold speaks."

- Torriano

"Gold opens all locks, no lock will hold against the power of gold."

- George Herbert

"Foul cankering rust the hidden treasure frets, but gold that's put to use more gold begets."

- William Shakespeare

"Gold were as good as twenty orators."

- William Shakespeare

"Gold is a deep-persuading orator."

- Richard Barnfield

"Gold is worshipped in all climates, without a single temple, and by all classes, without a single hypocrite."

- Caleb C. Colton

"Gold is a treasure, and he who possesses it does all he wishes to in this world, and succeeds in helping souls into paradise."

- Christopher Columbus

"When gold argues the cause, eloquence is impotent."

- Publilius Syrus

"Paper money eventually returns to its intrinsic value – zero."

- Voltaire, 1694- 1778

“Deficit spending is simply a scheme for the hidden confiscation of wealth. Gold stands in the way of this insidious process. It stands as a protector of property rights.”

- Alan Greenspan
